Dear Mr Sekgobela

DAVID SEKGOBELA AND ASSOCIATES / BOWMAN GILFILLAN REPORTS ON INVESTIGATIONS AT PRASA

1. I refer to your correspondence dated 24 August 2018 in the above regard.
2. The matter that you raised in your abovementioned letter was never part of the 37 issues raised and investigated by the Public Protector South Africa (PPSA) before issuing the report in 2015, titled "Derailed".
3. As part of remedial action, Public Protector had requested the National Treasury to commission investigations into all contracts above R10 million which had been awarded by PRASA, and I believe this is how Bowman Gilfillan was appointed by National Treasury to conduct an investigation against your company which led to the report, which you are unhappy with.

4. As a result the PPSA cannot be of assistance to you, especially as nowhere in our Derailed report does your company name appear as we did not deal with it during our PRASA investigation.
5. You are therefore advised to consult with your lawyers regarding the appropriate legal options available to you.

Best regards

ADV KEVIN MALUNGA
DEPUTY PUBLIC PROTECTOR OF
THE REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA
